REFLECTIONS FROM FR. MATTHEW

“Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

For our Gospel today we hear the conclusion of the “Bread of Life discourse” in the sixth chapter of John’s Gospel. In the preceding verses, which we have heard proclaimed in our liturgy over the past few weeks, we have heard Jesus explain that he is the Bread of Life, given so that those who believe may have eternal life. This discourse follows the miracle in which Jesus fed more than five thousand people with five barley loaves and two fish. As Jesus has been teaching these things, John’s Gospel describes a murmuring crowd unable to accept Jesus’ words. In today’s Gospel, we hear most of his listeners left him, leaving only his closest disciples.

Just as the larger crowd had struggled with Jesus’ teaching, these disciples also cannot accept Jesus’ words. Jesus is said to know about their murmuring. He responds by acknowledging their unbelief and by reiterating that only those chosen by the Father will follow Jesus to the end. John’s Gospel reports that many of those who had been Jesus’ disciples ceased to follow him at this point. The number of people following Jesus dwindled from a crowd of more than 5,000 to only 12 people. And it is to these Twelve that Jesus now turns his attention.

Simon Peter’s response to Jesus’ question as to whether those closest to him will also leave, reminds us of the reports of Peter’s confession of faith in the Synoptic Gospels. Peter announces, on behalf of all the Twelve, that they have come to believe all that Jesus has taught about himself: Jesus is the one from God in whom they have found the path to eternal life.

This conclusion of the Bread of Life discourse focuses on personal faith in the life of Christian discipleship. Each person must make his or her own judgment about who Jesus is and in doing so determine the way of life that he or she will follow. God’s grace invites us to be Jesus’ disciples, but each person must respond to the grace of God and confess as his or her own the belief that Jesus is the one from God. This faith then commits us to the path of life, leading us to eternal life.

Eucharistic Revival – Year of Mission

This year the Eucharistic revival leads all of us to become Eucharistic evangelists. We need to help our neighbors to see that the Love they are looking for is true and real, that this Love is already here, on our altars and in our tabernacles, and that this Love has a name, Jesus Christ! In this year of mission, Catholics across the country are saying “yes” to a special form of heart-to-heart accompaniment called the Walk With One initiative. This is your opportunity to be God’s instrument in the life of a person. Are you willing to step out of your comfort zone, overcome some fears, and evangelize one-on-one?

“Through us, Jesus continues His saving work, His mission in the world. In a real sense, the Eucharist is the food and drink for disciples on mission.” - Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament

2024 Parish Mission Appeal

This weekend is our Annual Mission Appeal to support the HIV infected Children and Youth in India which Fr. Matthew, our pastor, founded. Kindly support this mission with your generosity.

The details of this mission were published recently. You can access the information at the following link: <https://catholicherald.org/local/milwaukee-priest-cherished-unique-family-reunion-in-india/>

Envelopes will be provided at the end of the pews if you wish to take one home and bring it back the following weekend.

Checks should be made payable to Mother of Perpetual Help.

Thank you again for your support.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT JOINING A PARISH CHOIR?

Here is your chance to make the move. Mother of Perpetual Help parish is blessed with two choirs who lead the music at Mass.

The CONTEMPORARY CHOIR serves at the 7:00pm Mass Sunday evenings. This choir gathers for rehearsal at 6:30pm in church before each Mass on Sunday.

The MIXED CHOIR serves primarily at the 8:30am Mass and occasionally at the 4:00pm Mass on Saturday and the 10:30am Mass on Sunday. This choir rehearses on Thursday evenings from 6:30pm to 8:00pm beginning Thursday, September 5, 2024.

If you are interested in becoming a member of either choir please contact Joseph Wittmann, Director of Liturgy/Choir at josephw@mphwa.org. The ability to read music is not a requirement, however, the desire to grow closer to Christ is.

Can you spend one hour per week with Our Lord?

ADORATION – The Best Kept Secret of our Faith!

Please consider trying Adoration for one hour and when you leave, see if you don't feel much better than when you arrived. As much as we would like you to commit for one hour, stop in when you can, but you will need the code for entry.

Call Grace Elliott – 262-786-3840 for more information.
